1.	l. The runway of the former Heinkel airfield at Rostock-Marienene is in good condition and the taxiways leading out of the ruined hangars are usable.
2.	Barracks for the workers engaged in construction work at the field have been built at the points marked "B" on the attached sketch. In the southwestern area two large one-story burracks have been constructed.
3.	Loads of rubble are constantly being carried off the eastern and western ends of the field. Clearing the field of rubble cannot be completed until the necessary machines arrive, after which the work of clearing is expected to continue for three to four months.
4.	A new hangar is under construction in the southwest corner of the field. It is 50 meters in length and 20 meters wide. Another new hangar complex is also located in the southwest corner of the field. It is designated on the sketch as "Fish-cannery". The track installation shown on the sketch consists of an 8-track line to Bramow and four tracks from Bramow to a point one kilometer from the airfield.
